

Facilitator Profiles

Namaadh Noor Programme

Ikram · Masjidul Ikram, Addu City

Profiles of the lead facilitators delivering the 10-day teaching programme and guiding participants through the 40-day congregational-prayer challenge.

Hammad Hilalul Ameen

Lead Facilitator · Imam & Qur'an Instructor

A qualified Islamic scholar and practising Imam who combines scholarly grounding with hands-on classroom experience. With ten years leading congregational prayer and six years teaching the Qur'an and Arabic to children, he is well placed to teach young learners to pray correctly and with understanding — the exact aim of this programme.

ACADEMIC QUALIFICATION

Bachelor's Degree (Level 7) in Islamic Theology and Sciences

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Imam 10 years

Qur'an & Arabic Teacher 6 years

ROLE IN THE NAMAADH NOOR PROGRAMME

Lead facilitator for the teaching block and the congregational challenge — delivering the five prescribed teaching components, demonstrating the prayer, and mentoring participants throughout the 40-day jamā'ah challenge.

Roohul Ameen

Lead Facilitator · Senior Imam & Qur'an Instructor

A senior Imam and veteran educator whose long service brings depth, discipline, and a steady mentoring presence to the programme. With twenty-five years leading congregational prayer and three decades teaching the Qur'an and the Arabic language, he offers participants an exceptional standard of instruction and example.
